General Comment

I can do my own planning! I'm retired and have saved my entire life, I have read and educated myself on investing and do not want the government to touch my IRA in any way. In my 73 years old I have watched the government grow bigger and bigger, it has turned into a monster with insatiable appetite for power, control and money. I'm afraid when I think of our government thoughts of Nazi Germany, Stalin and others comes to mind. As I do not trust my government any more Iam reluctant to provide contact information.
